

“Warning against Fraudulent Practice”

Kelly wishes to state that the company has never charged money for recruiting candidates. Candidates seeking employment through Kelly need to be cautious and not trust agencies or individuals claiming to be Kelly's representative and charging fees/ upfront charges for providing the opportunity. Kelly disclaims any liability on this front.

Kelly wishes to warn candidates seeking employment through them to kindly note the following:

- Beware of job offer received from organizations or individuals claiming to be from Kelly and demanding a fee for job application
- Kindly verify the authenticity of organizations/individuals assuring candidates of providing jobs in reputed companies
- Refrain from paying agencies/ individuals who charge for job applications. Kelly does not charge applicants for their candidature
- Refrain from disclosing personal & confidential information, including bank account details without proper verification of the organization or individual
- In case of the slightest suspicion about the source & credentials of such individuals/ agencies claiming to be Kelly's representatives, it is requested that the matter be reported immediately to Kelly on the contact details provided below
- Kelly will take appropriate steps to ensure a smooth recruitment process. Also be aware of fake email ids. All correspondence from Kelly will be done from an official personalized email id.

For any clarifications please contact us on info@kellyservices.co.in

